

REPORT ON ALUMNI TALK

Title of alumni talk- Awareness of Cervical cancer in Society

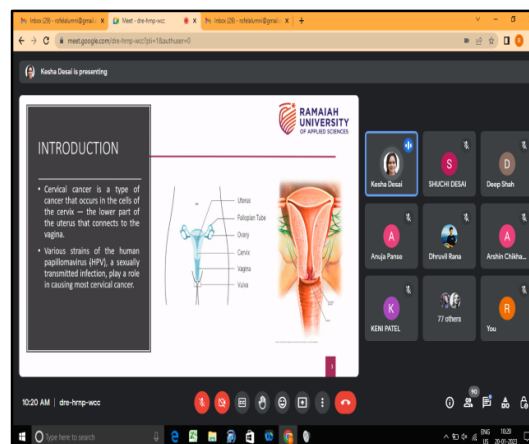

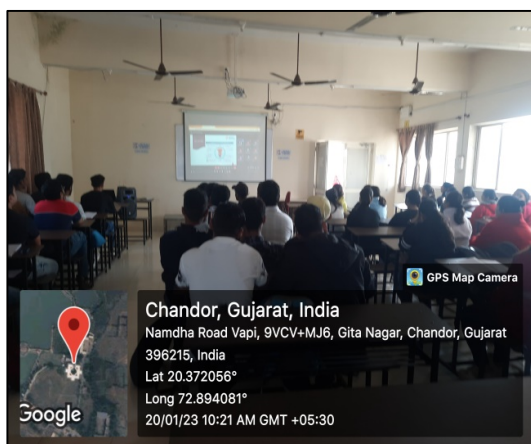

Speaker- Dr. Kesha M. Desai, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Pharmacy, M.S.Ramaiah

University of Applied Sciences, Bangalore, Karnataka

Date & Venue- 20th January, 2023 with at online- Google meet platform

No. of participants- 125 (B.Pharm, M.Pharm students & faculty members)

Summary report- The alumni talk was held to aware students about cervical cancer. During this talk Dr. Kesha Desai explained the physiology of reproductive system and the pathophysiology of cervical cancer. Dr. Desai also shared the knowledge of various precautions and protective measures to be taken for cervical cancer. She explained about various vaccines available in markets to prevent cervical cancer for both females and males. Dr. Kesha Desai mentioned that January is declared as cervical cancer awareness month by the Government of India and encouraged students to take vaccine as a precautionary measure for cervical cancer. Students of B.Pharm Sem 6 attended this talk live on an LCD projector at the Multipurpose Hall of ROFEL Pharmacy building. The rest of the participants joined via online Google meeting platform.

(Dr. Kesha Desai delivered the alumni talk on "Awareness of Cervical Cancer in Society")