Summary:

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of ROFEL Shri G.M. Bilakhia College of Pharmacy organized a Expert Alumni talk-2024. The ROFEL Shri G M Bilakhia College of Pharmacy was delighted to host an expert alumni talk on "Scope of Preclinical Research"

Session Overview

The event was inaugurated by a welcome address by Ms. Ayesha Godal, Alumni Cell Coordinator. Guest was welcomed with flowers as a token of appreciation, followed by a brief introduction of the speakers.

Session by Ms. Neeta Sinha (Aarsh Pharmaceuticals and research Pvt Ltd. Daman)

Ms Neeta explained that Preclinical research offers significant scope for undergraduates, particularly those interested in pursuing careers in biomedical sciences, pharmaceuticals, biotechnology, or related fields. It serves as the foundation of drug development and medical innovation, providing opportunities for hands-on experience, skill development, and exploration of career paths. Ms Neeta also emphasized to M Pharm Pharmacology students that by participating in preclinical studies, students contribute to the advancement of science and medicine while laying a strong foundation for their professional and academic futures.

The Expert Alumni Talk concluded with a Q&A session, where Ms Neeta Sinha addressed queries from the audience & Vote of Thanks delivered by Dr. Chirag Desai. The Alumni were thanked for their valuable contributions, and the participants left with a deeper understanding of the scope and
